Weekend Course Programme

A weekend course Programme was brought along by Sumati's IAS to prepare for the UPSC Civil Services Exam. The course has been specifically created for students who are unable to attend classes throughout the week due to a work or other obligations. In accordance with this programme, lectures will only be held twice a day, on Saturdays and Sundays.

The course curriculum has been created in a way that ensures the quality and thoroughness of the syllabus will not be jeopardised. It has been designed and developed under the guidance of the expert civil service faculties and mentors of Sumati's IAS.

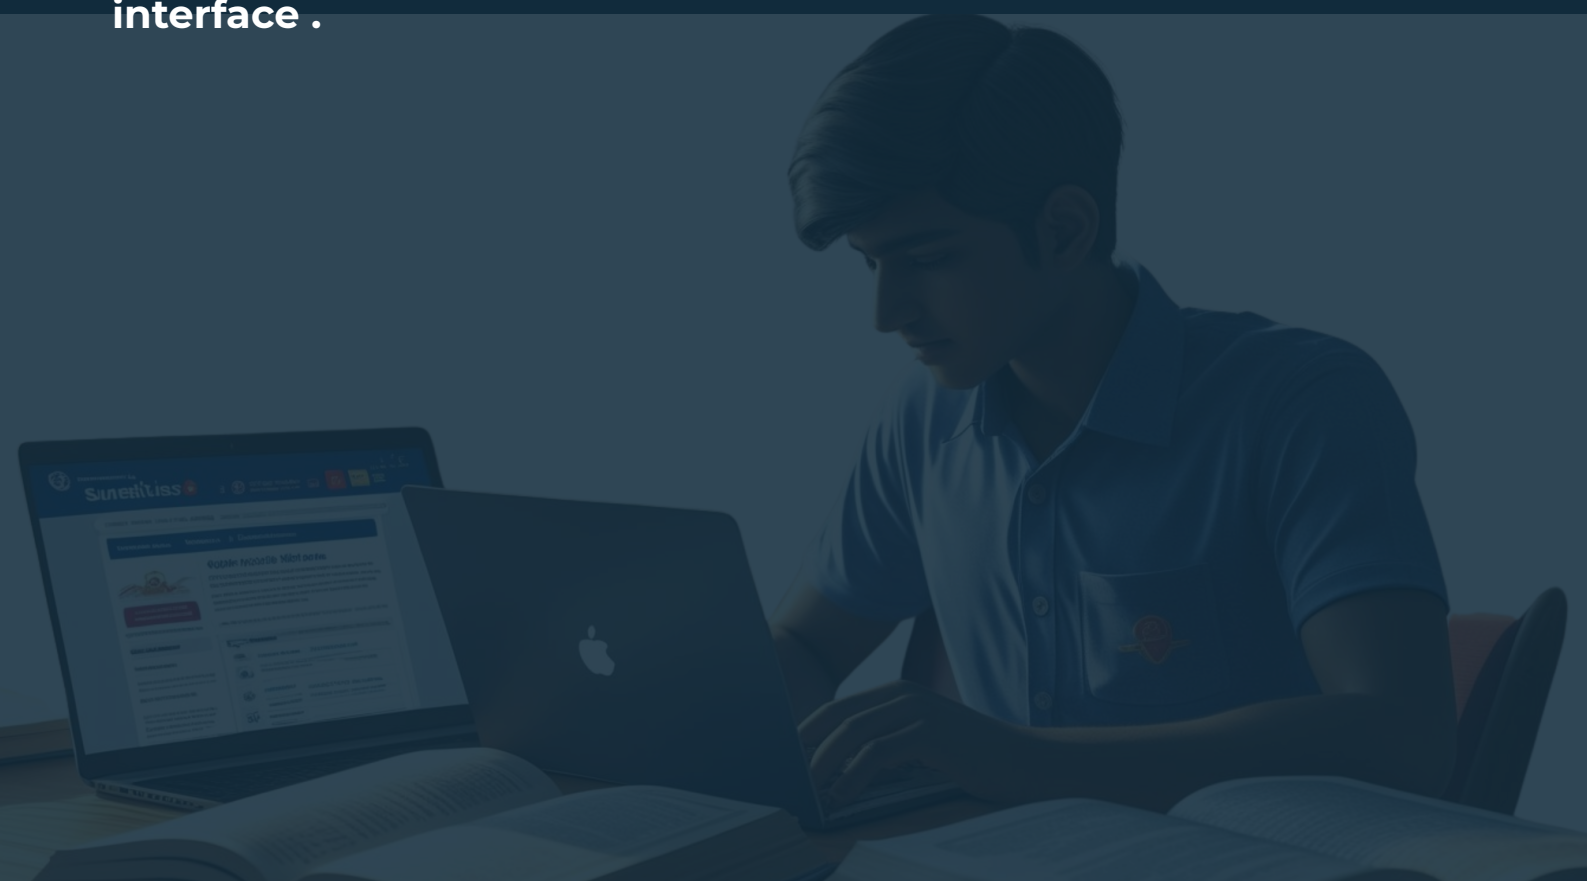

The 11 months program is unique due to its extensive features, inclusive curriculum, and design considering the needs of aspirants.
